Charging the Forever Flashlight III

Your Forever Flashlight III never needs a battery. It is charged by shaking the unit. For best results, follow these steps in charging:

1. Turn the unit off. (See figure below, right.)
2. Hold the unit parallel to the ground and shake it with moderate force about two to three times per second. (See diagram at top of next page.)

NOTE: Shaking the unit too hard may cause damage. Shaking vertically won't charge the unit efficiently.

Your Forever Flashlight III will provide you with up to 10 minutes of light when charged for 30 seconds. If the unit is completely drained of energy, you should give the unit 90 shakes—or about 30 seconds of shaking at three shakes per second—to fully charge its capacitor. We recommend charging your flashlight for one minute the first time you use the Forever Flashlight III or after a long period of non-use.

Cautions

Forever Flashlight III generates a strong magnetic field that surrounds it. Keep the unit at least one foot away from medical devices, computers, magnetic storage media, or other devices such as:

- Pacemakers
- Credit cards
- Cassette tapes
- Televisions
- Computer disks
- Any device with a cathode ray tube (CRT)
- Video tapes

Do NOT attempt to remove the Light Emitting Diode (LED) or any internal part.

Special Care & Safety

- Avoid rough handling such as bumping or dropping.
- Use only warm water and mild soap to clean the housing.
- Rinse with fresh water.
- Do not look directly into the intense light.
- Clean the lens with glass-cleaning products.
- Do not use petroleum distillates (such as gasoline or kerosene) or solvents such as acetone to clean any part of the Forever Flashlight.
